Name Mrs. Rabb (key) Side 2

Date	Event	Details
June 1774	Intolerable Acts	• laws passed by Parliament to punish Massachusetts for the Boston Tea Party • there were 4 laws (or acts) that were passed to close Boston's port, to forbid electing local officials, + also Quartering Act (another)
Sept. 1774 – Oct. 1774	1st Continental Congress	• All Colonies (except Georgia) sent representatives to meet and discuss problems with Britain • met in Philadelphia • Stop all trade with Britain • would meet again in May of 1775
April 18, 1775	Paul Revere's Midnight Ride	• Revere rode through Massachusetts countryside alerting Patriots to the arrival of British troops • he also wanted to warn Sam Adams and John Hancock, leaders of Sons of Liberty • One if by land, two if by sea (lanterns in Old North Church belfry)
April 19, 1775	Battle at Lexington and Concord	• British went to seize stockpiles of weapons being held by Patriots • arrest leaders John Hancock and Samuel Adams • Colonists defeated Redcoats • 1st battles of American Revolution • 700 British v. 77 militiamen (at Lexington)
	Battle at Bunker Hill Other	Organizer
January 1776	Common Sense by Thomas Paine	Paine wrote a pamphlet explaining how colonists should not support a king who didn't care about them + who would use force against them. He persuaded many colonists to support the Patriots with his pamphlet.

12/14 12/14 12/19 12/14 12/19